VERSIONS OF PARTICIPATION
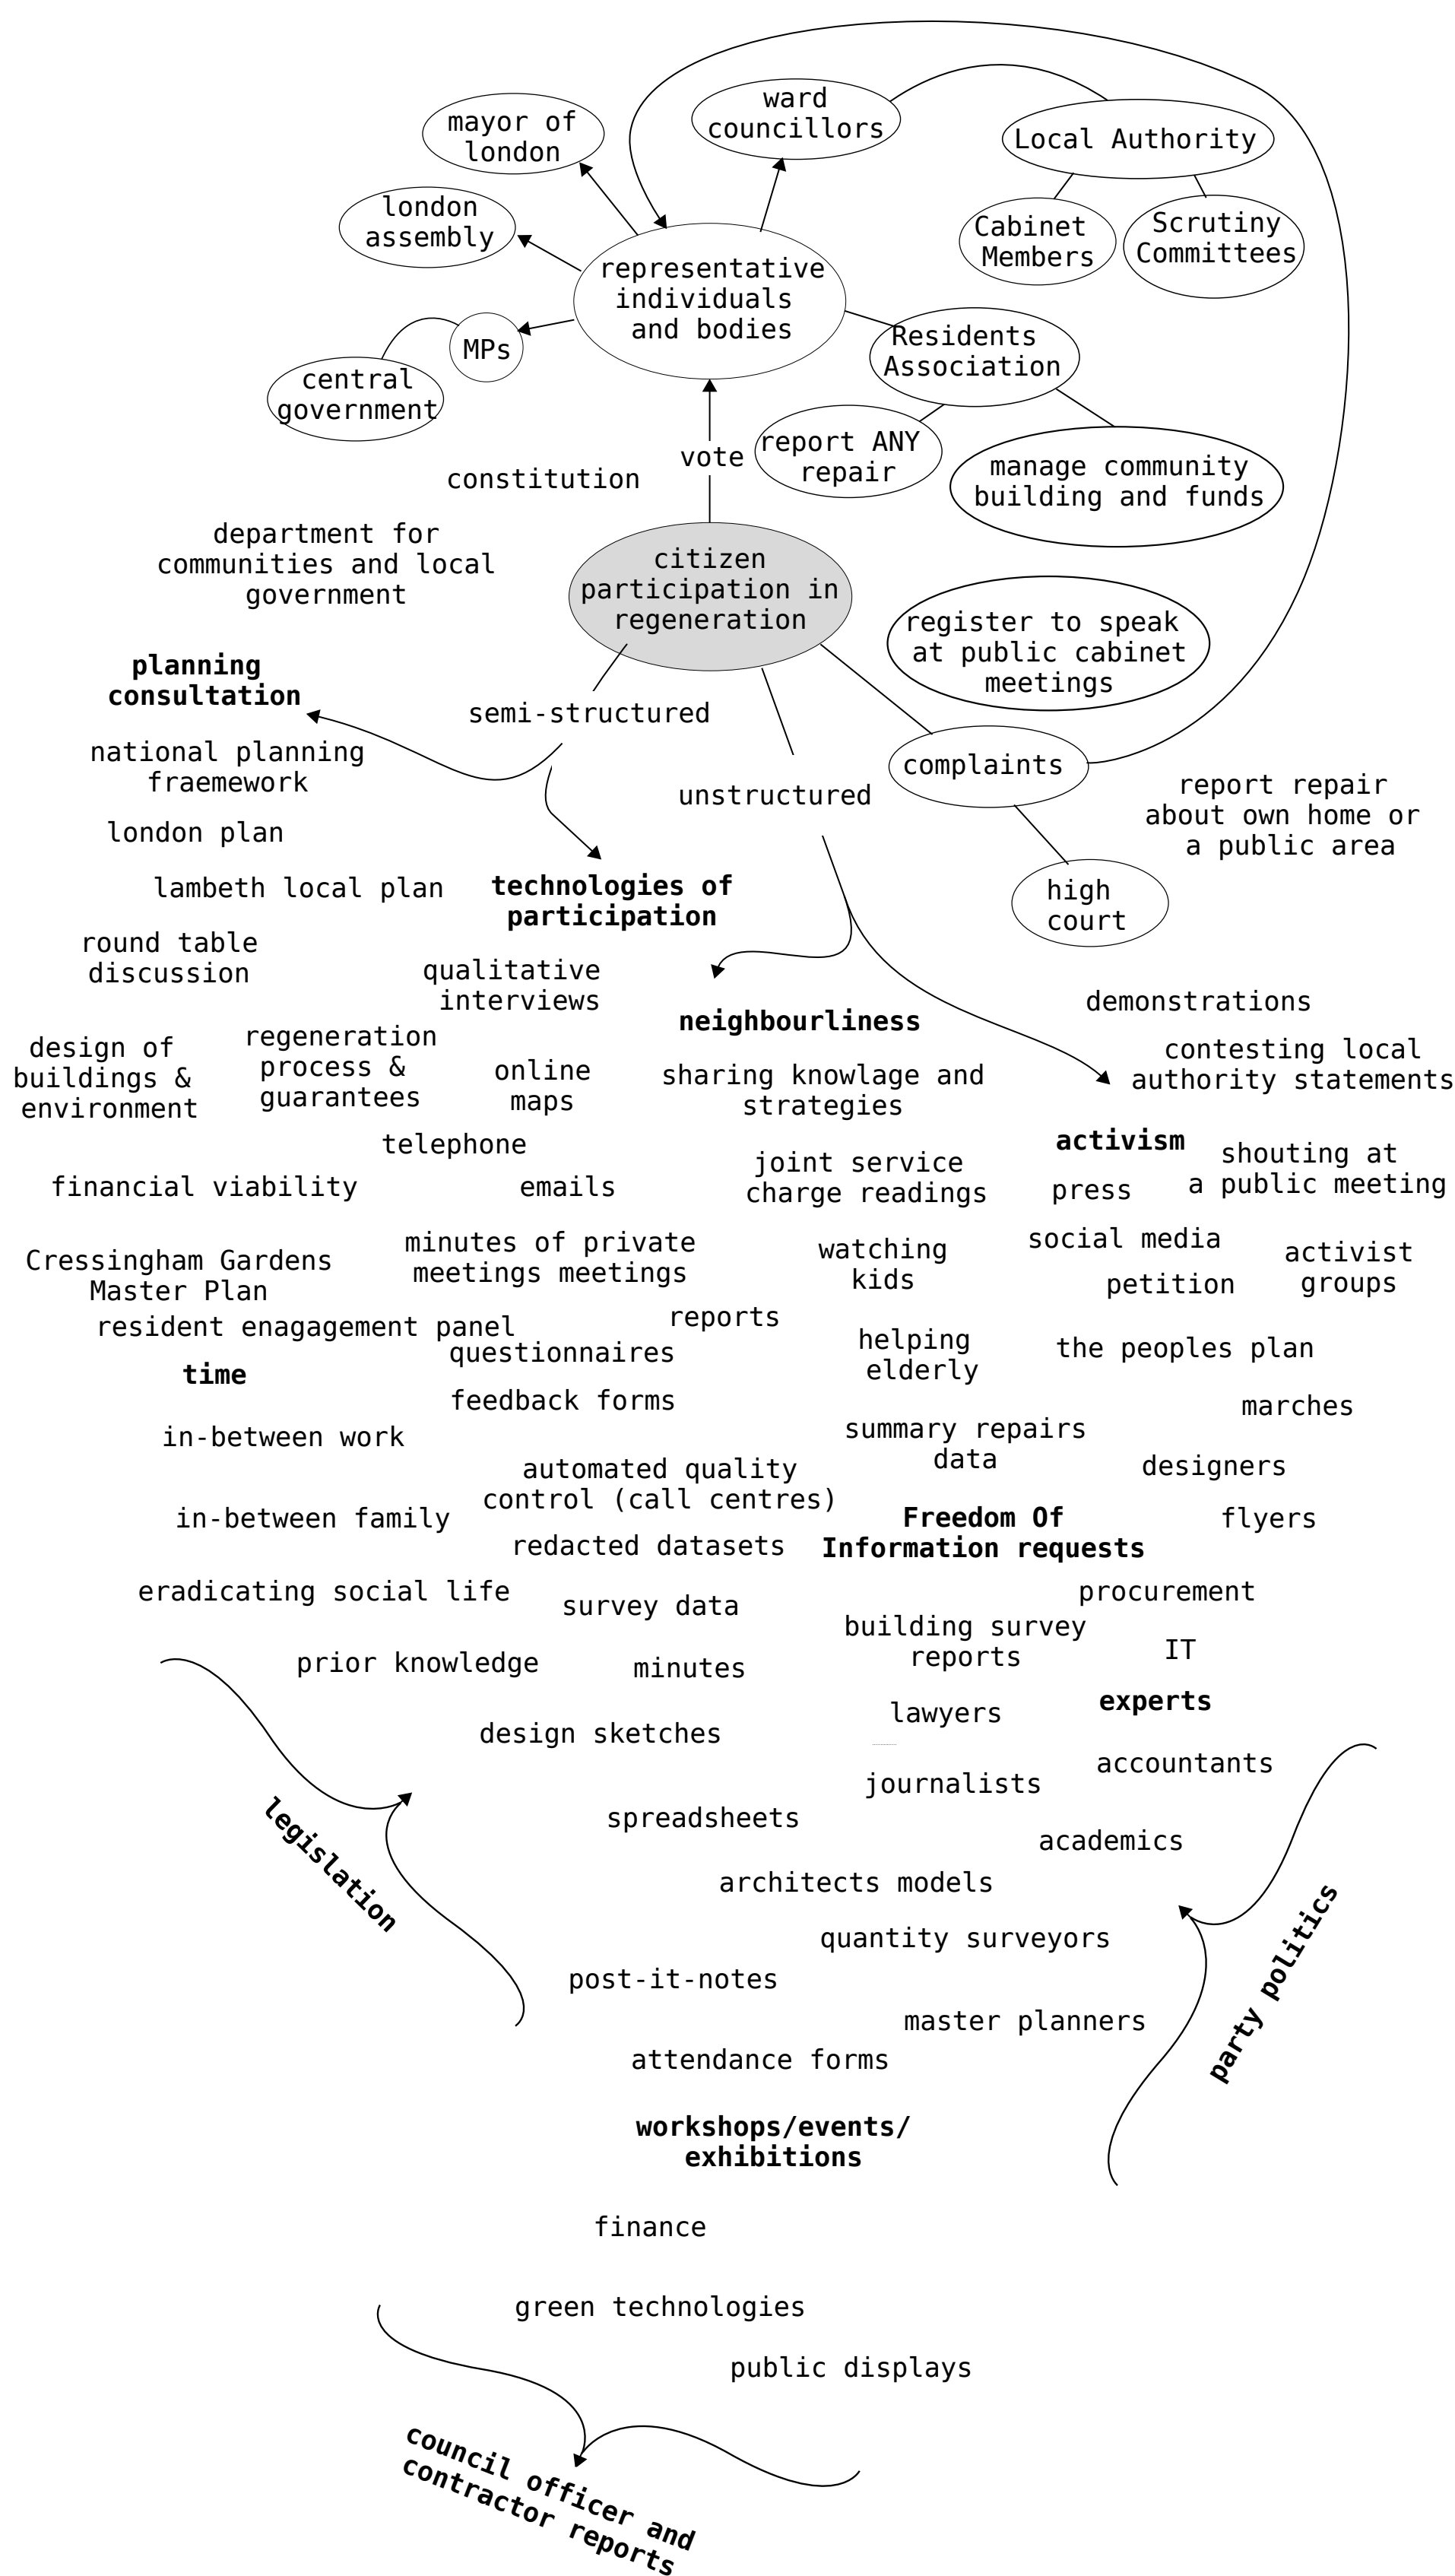

ward councillors

mayor of london

Local Authority

london assembly

Cabinet Members

Scrutiny Committees

representative individuals and bodies

MPs

Residents Association

central government

vote

report ANY repair

manage community building and funds

constitution

citizen participation in regeneration department for communities and local government register to speak at public cabinet meetings

planning consultation

semi-structured

national planning fraemework

unstructured

complaints

report repair about own home or a public area

london plan

lambeth local plan

technologies of participation

high court

round table discussion

qualitative interviews

demonstrations

design of buildings & environment

regeneration process & guarantees

online maps

neighbourliness

contesting local authority statements

financial viability

telephone

emails

sharing knowlage and strategies

joint service charge readings

activism

shouting at a public meeting

press

Cressingham Gardens Master Plan

minutes of private meetings meetings

watching kids

social media

activist groups

petition

resident enagagement panel

reports

questionnaires

time

helping elderly

the peoples plan

feedback forms

in-between work

summary repairs data

marches

automated quality control (call centres)

designers

in-between family

redacted datasets

Freedom Of Information requests

flyers

eradicating social life

survey data

procurement

building survey reports

IT

prior knowledge

minutes

lawyers

experts

design sketches

journalists

accountants

academics

spreadsheets

legislation

architects models

quantity surveyors

party politics

post-it-notes

master planners

attendance forms

workshops/events/ exhibitions

finance

green technologies

public displays

council officer and contractor reports

Figure 10: Fold-out: Versions of democratic participation, including technological entanglements.